COUNCIL PRESIDENT ISTNICK – Councilman Lewis.

COUNCILMAN LEWIS – Yes. President Istnick, I am looking for clarification; I want to make sure that we're correct here, but for some reason my memory serves that the next three ordinances didn't receive verbals to be on the agenda, but I could be wrong. I don't know if anyone else could recall anything different.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT ISTNICK – Diane, what do your records show?

COUNCIL CLERK ROLLAND – I don't have the Request for Legislations here with me.

COUNCILMAN LEWIS – I don't know if Mr. Gregg remembers at all. It doesn't matter, I'll give them first reading. I just want to make sure we're okay, that's all.

COUNCIL CLERK ROLLAND – I did go back through the recording for the Work Session and I believe the verbals were given, but I can go back through and do it again, just to make sure.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT ISTNICK – Councilman Lewis.

17. REMARKS OF DELEGATIONS AND CITIZENS TO MATTERS NOT ON THE AGENDA

L.J. DELUCA – Madam President, Diane Rolland and President Pro Tem, Ed Lewis and everyone else, good evening. 2954 Veterans Blvd. S.E., Massillon, Ohio. Transparent government is good government and informed citizens are better citizens, got it. I'm going to talk a little bit tonight about registration fees and some of the other things. In Texas, remember the gas pipeline and the wind turbines; they all froze up. This should be a reminder for all of us here in Massillon. Some businesses here in Canton, it's called UV filters like the Cleveland Clinic uses and they scrub that. We got to be thinking proactive when we are. I talked to Holderbaum Sewer and Drain, they used to handle in the City long time ago, some of our catch basins and sewer drains. I talked to Tony and I understand that the wastewater system here in Massillon doesn't handle a lot of that. They sublease it out, so, I'm interested in the work evaluation reports, the prices and the company. The Mayor said, good evening, and this is a couple of things and she anticipated a question about K-9's. She said the first K-9 has been certified with Officer Crabtree. The second K-9 will be ready in March 2021. The dog has been there in training and the K-9 officer is Louise. I have a lot of respect, I have a respect for every K-9 officer, I've been doing a lot of demonstrations. Inka, we love Inka and rest in peace and officer Miquel, a good friend of mine. Inka reported to work the next day stabbed. So, I salute all K-9 officers and I know all their names or at least I try to make a chance to get them. Safety Service Director, Barb Sylvester, said she didn't update the Mayor just yet on equipment and accessories to go into the second vehicle; come a little bit more prepared next time, please, Safety Service Director. Mayor Kathy Catazaro-Perry said on her capital list, $800,000 for a fire truck. Well, I happen to know Chief Burgasser; wen to Walsh University. The numbers on the capital list are climbing. We spend a dollar only once; they're climbing. It worries me a little bit here in Massillon, Ohio. Plus, you've got the blight here in Massillon; I'll get to that. The Massillon Police Dept., I want to congratulate Jamie Slutz, the new councilman. Talked to him over the weekend. Guess what, folks? Got back from Florida and within less than an hour, he was on the phone. My God, thank you, Jamie. I don't know if I would do that. And then I also remember Sgt. Muntean who said that Det. Jamie Slutz, I think this was in 2017, looked sharp in it and he did and I just want to mention something. Sgt. Brian Muntean wrote a book, people here, about his experience as a police officer in Massillon and he was a damn good one. Went to Smiley's and other restaurants, I'm just going to plug Smiley; he was all over town. So, some of you might not know that he put a book, you can use a lifeline to Chief Moser, but don't call 911, okay. Call the general number, I'll give it to you. This is not a question and answer to Madam President, probably looking at me now. The name of the book was "Policing in Massillon, Ohio; Protrekt and Swerve". It was written by this retired police sergeant, Sgt. Muntean, a friend of mine and what was in his mind? And they sold a lot of it. For the record here in the City of Massillon, Ohio, the state is paying hundreds of millions of dollars in fraudulent unemployment benefits. Now I'm going to move all of this stuff over here folks because everything's been Jimmy Johnson, in Code Enforcement. Jimmy told me on the phone when I asked something just recently, "Mr. DeLuca, you got to put it in writing and then I'll put it in writing and respond to you". Jimmy, my goodness, have we got 200 people? You'll be doing all the clerical work like they've been talking Terri Argent's thing that's coming up here. Mayor Catazaro-Perry has a wish list. We have to take baby steps. We have a very small staff; I don't have the figures; we don't want to bring it to Council all at once. I'm going to end up here. It's Jimmy, Jimmy, Jimmy. What about Trevor, what about Flek? I reach all this stuff and Mr. Maley, you said that you went five years ago to Code Enforcement in Canton, Ohio. Sir, it's time to get updated and bring us good information. I went through all of this stuff. I'm not going to go through it. This information here, I want to mention, please Madam President, I talked on the phone to the Chief Auditor and she works for Jayne Ferrero and I want to get to it, I may not have enough time, here.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT ISTNICK – Mr. Deluca, you're thirty seconds over.

L.J. DELUCA – Thank you, Madam President. I want to thank everybody for listening and next time I want to talk about Stefanie Myers, who I talked to. She's a Chief Deputy Auditor in Jayne Ferrero's office about the fraudulent claims the City of Massillon, Ohio, is paying and I intend to investigate it. Thank you, Madam President, Diane Rolland and President Pro Tem, Ed Lewis. Thank you a million.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT ISTNICK – Thank you, Mr. Deluca. Is there anyone else from the community that would like to address Council? Hearing none, Councilman Lewis.

18. ADJOURNMENT
